

Day 1 ~ Liberty for the Oppressed

The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me because He has anointed Me to preach the gospel to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed.

Luke 4:18 (NKJV)

Dear Lord Jesus,

The power of Your resurrection rolled away the stone from Your grave. I pray this day, O God, that You would roll away the stones from my life. Roll away the stones from my mind, my heart, my soul, my spirit. May I come out of the grave from any dead thing desirous to hold me back. May I live fervently to walk in the unentanglement for which You arose from the grave. May every morning be a resurrection morning in my life, and may I take up the mantle to declare liberty to the captives, recovery of sight to the blind, and freedom to those who are oppressed.

Day 17 ~ One of the Four

... and it was heard that He was in the house. Immediately many gathered together, so that there was no longer room to receive them, not even near the door. And He preached the word to them. Then they came to Him, bringing a paralytic who was carried by four men. And when they could not come near Him because of the crowd, they uncovered the roof where He was. So when they had broken through, they let down the bed on which the paralytic was lying. When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the paralytic, “Son, your sins are forgiven you.”

Mark 2:1-5 (NKJV)

Dear Lord,

By Your Spirit, through Your grace, please use me to be “one of the four.” I desire to be a part of someone else’s breakthrough, O God, even if it is a small part. I want my faith to bring someone else before Your presence, and my faith to be pleasing to You. Continue to stir the waters, O God, and manifest healing by Your Spirit. You have already paid the price by Your stripes—so when I bring the afflicted before You by prayer and fasting, and other intentional acts—please make a tangible difference of restoration in their lives. Restore, heal, deliver, and set free, and may I be used by You.
